About the Hall of Fame

Honor, Educate and Entertain.....

an abbreviated mission statement for the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame & Museum.

Since 1972, the Sports Hall of Fame has celebrated Virginia's contributions to the world of sports. Currently, close to 300 athletes, coaches, administrators and journalists have been inducted.

The Hall of Fame's new facility opened in April 2005 in Olde Towne Portsmouth, and showcases intriguing memorabilia on golf, college sports, media, Olympics, and Washington Redskins, as well as interactive exhibits, NASCAR simulators and a broadcasting booth, all guaranteed to bring out the kid in everyone!

Throughout the year, unique, student-friendly classes are available. Each year, over 15,000 schoolchildren experience the lively programs in character development, nutrition, fitness, math, science and language.
